

PROJECT REPORT

Cave Mountain

Photo courtesy of Matt Monroe – J. Matthew Monroe & Associates, LLC.

Location Grant and Pendleton counties

Type OHCF perpetual conservation easement

Effective date December 27, 2011

Size 209 acres

Special features A massive limestone cliff and associated rare plants

Conservation values

- Second and third highest climate change resilience rating
- Contributes to the 30x30 global initiative to mitigate climate change and conserve biodiversity
- Unique or important wildlife habitat
- Relatively unique or undisturbed example of a natural community
- Confirmed rare, threatened, or endangered species
- Potential rare, threatened, and endangered species of bats
- Conservation connectivity
- The project prevents known threats
- Conservation restoration
- Scientific research

Partners

- Private landowner
- Outdoor Heritage Conservation Fund